GRACYN DAWN COURTRIGHT

ORDER

On January 19, 2021, a person appeared for the purpose of an initial appearance following her arrest on a warrant issued from the District of Columbia. Kathleen Robeson, Assistant United States Attorney, was present for the United States and Rhett H. Johnson, Assistant Federal Public Defender, was present for this person. Also present was Kachine Jonese, United States Probation Officer.

The Court advised the person of the provisions of Rule 5 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and that she had a right to a hearing to determine whether she was the same person named in the petition and arrest warrant. The person, hereinafter the defendant, waived her right to a Rule 5 identity hearing. A Waiver of Rule 5 & 5.1 Hearings signed by the defendant and her counsel was presented to the Court by the defendant's counsel.

Upon review of the financial affidavit, the Court found that the defendant qualifies for court-appointed counsel based upon the financial affidavit submitted, and it is hereby ORDERED that the Office of the Federal Public Defender is appointed for the purpose of this proceeding in this district only.

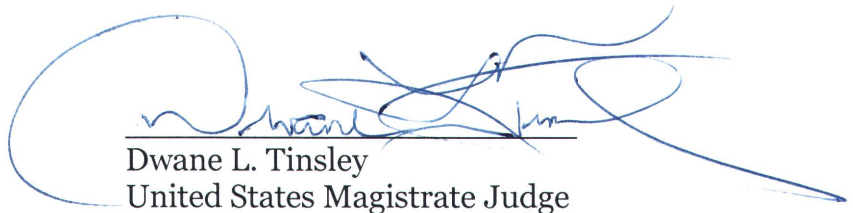

The defendant was not called upon to plead. The Court informed the defendant of the charges filed in the case, of the defendant's right to counsel, and any further proceedings in this matter. The Court further informed the defendant that she was not required to make a statement and that any statement made by the defendant may be used against her.

Further, the defendant waived her right to a preliminary hearing and executed a written waiver.

The Court next inquired of the United States as to its position on detention. The United States advised that it was not requesting detention at this time. Based upon the United States not requesting detention and the recommendation of the probation officer, it is hereby ORDERED that the defendant is released on a Ten Thousand Dollar unsecured Appearance Bond with Conditions of Release as outlined under a separate Order.

The Clerk is directed to provide copies of this Order to the defendant, all counsel of record, the United States Probation Department, and the United States Marshals Service.
